8/5/77

Dear Floyd,

Jim just phoned to apologize for forgetting to give me the message you gave him for me on Monday and for ~~he~~ getting busy and not writing the letter himself.

I'd have done it before now if I'd known. I'm sorry.

I'll write it and then have Lil retype it as soon as she can. I hope we can do this by the morning's mail so you can have it on Monday.

I do hope you can get a job soon.

And that all gets put together well.

Sincerely,
